From the Baron and Baroness

Unto our strong and noble gentles of the Barony Unser Hafen, does Mistress Rashiqah and Lord Tuman send Greetings!

As winters' chill recedes to make way for the gentle warmth of spring, as goes our fair Barony. As you may have noticed, our group is stronger than ever. We appreciate the many newcomers that have been introduced to our group. Fighter practice attendance is stronger than ever, and is truly the "place to be". Dance practice is more entertaining than ever with the new venue. Please come, learn a dance, teach a dance, and brush up on those you don't quite remember, or even just come and socialize.

We wish to offer our heartfelt congratulations to Lady Rosslin von Hohenzollern who was admitted into the order of the Silver Stirrup last month at Dance College. Lady Rosslin has been a driving force in the area Equestrian activities, and we are proud of her accomplishments.

Lady Morgiana was recognized with a Stag's Heart for her constant service to the Kingdom and the Crowns of the Outlands! Huzzah!

Lady Reyhaneh BahAr has been authorized to spend a substantial amount of funds for the upkeep and upgrading of the Baronial Archery Equipment. We would encourage all our populace to participate in the practice of archery. Not only is the social aspect of archery entertaining in itself, but come times of war, the mighty archers of Unser Hafen contribute heavily towards the protection of our lands.

This month will see Grand Outlandish and Battle at the Bluff in the nearby shire of Hinterland on the same weekend. Rashiqah will be traveling to Hinterlands and I will be traveling to Grand Outlandish in al-Barran. Regardless of which direction you choose to travel be assured that you will find friends and an enjoyable time! We would request that you accompany us, and travel outside the borders of our Barony. If you are in need of transportation, please let us know, and we'll try to arrange something. Traveling is an important part of our Society. It allows us to see new and different ideas, and yes, even rest while we're letting someone else run the event for a change!

It has come to our attention, that many of our populace do not understand the award recommendation system. Any and all gentles within the SCA are encouraged to send recommendations to Their Majesties, the King and Queen of the Outlands. You may recommend any gentle for any award. Without our recommendations, the job of recognizing gentles with awards becomes much more difficult. So lend a hand, pick up your quill and write that letter! In the hopes that EVERYONE will send in one or more letters of recommendation, we have included one for your convenience in this issue of the Tosspot. Please remember that for this upcoming reign, only written and signed recommendation forms will be accepted (no e-mail).

Before this month's populace meeting on May 22nd, we will meet in circle with the Golden Ring at 6:30.

In Service to the Crown and the Barony,

Lord Tuman and Mu'allima Rashiqah

Officer's Reports

Seneschals Words

Greetings,

Ah, the flowers are blooming, the trees are...treeing and the grass is greening. This means that camping season is not far away. Are you prepared? If not here are a few things to remember (shamelessly stolen from Lady Aidan).

HELPFUL CAMPING TIPS

Tents are see-thru when illuminated from within.

Always bring extra bedding and warm garb, even when it's summer.

Waterless shampoo and baby wipes are your friend.

It is a foregone conclusion that you will have at least one "adventure" per trip.

Trailers are the Instruments of the Devil.

You will always forget to pack something you end up needing.

You will always bring too much of or too little of something.

When Big Wind comes, drop the tent before ropes and stakes start going. It is not fun to fly a tent.

It is not nice to barf on the ground in front of someone else's tent. It is also not nice to pee uphill from someone else's tent, just because you are too drunk/tired/lazy to walk to the porta pottie in the middle of the night.

Thou shalt not keep thy neighbors in camp awake with the noise of thy lovemaking, thy fighting or thy bodily functions.

Small screaming children are not welcome in my camp at 0-way-too-early-in-the-morning-after-the- night-before. Small well behaved children bearing hot chocolate and Pepto are very welcome.

Police your butts and pick up after your pets.

Wear sun screen. Make everyone else wear sun screen too. Big manly men with blistery awful sunburns moo-ing around the campfire in pain are amusing, but it wears thin quickly.

Don't camp in the Party Camp if you want to go to bed early. Don't camp in the Family Camp if you want to sleep late.

"Wooded campsite" means something completely different in places that are not New Mexico.

Bring more than one pair of shoes, and way more socks than you think you'll need.

Remember a tooth brushing set up for camp.

Bring a basic first aid kit for yourself (pain reliever, antacid, anti-nauseal, anti-diarrheal, bandaids, acewrap, q-tips, and itch cream, at least). That way you don't have to hunt down a chiurgeon and make a pain of yourself for every minor boo-boo. Boo-boos happen.

Pavel and Valen's rule: On the first day of the event, go into town and buy all the booze you'll need for the rest of the event. On the second day of the event, go into town and buy all the booze you'll need for the rest of the event. Repeat as necessary.

On a more serious note, fighter practice moves to our Summer site (City Park) on the first Sunday in May. I have heard rumours that the Baron may have "Baron's Whim Tourneys", with really neat prizes, so show up on time!

Yours in Service..... by the way, did I ever fix that pesky leak in my tent?

Yours in Service,
Gwillim de Glamorgan

From Bofharrach

Greetings from Bofharrach, we are back in swing for summer. We will be holding fighter practice on Thursday evenings at 7:00 pm at Sanborn park in Greeley starting May 4th. Directions to the site are as follows. Hwy. 34 to 35th Avenue north to 20th St. east on 20th St. to park entrance. We will try to have a sign or banner marking the entrance.

All who wish to do so may bring picnic food to the first practice of the month to share after fighting. I wish to see everyone there even if you do not wish to fight we are trying to increase our numbers so we need to be seen en-mass if possible.

In service,
Lord Lorcan

From the Captain of Archers

Greetings unto the populous of Unser Hafen!

Archery in Unser Hafen is heating up! We have started archery practice and are getting ready for our first tournament of the season. This tournament will be on Thursday, May 11th starting at 6:00 pm at the archery practice site with Their Excellencies, Tuman and Rashiqah expected to attend. There will be unusual shoots as well as a donation barbecue after. We would like to put up several period pavilions, and create as much ambiance as possible. Parking is tight so carpool if you can. Garb is required and there is a $1.00 fee per archer. We will have some loaner equipment available for those who want to shoot but may not have their own equipment. The tournament will be divided into four divisions: Children, Novice, Bowman/Yeoman and Forester/Bowmaster. There will be prizes for the top 3 archers in each division. This tournament is also the first of a series that will have overall winners for each division. We are in need of prizes for these tournaments. Anyone who is willing to donate a prize, please contact me. Also, for this first tournament, I need 2 to 3 heavy weapons fighters to come out and assist me with one of the shoots. This would entail the fighters to block combat arrows, will be scored for the least hits and the winner will receive rattan as the prize. Everyone, come out and have a good time!

The Barony instituted a new Non-armigerous Archery Award at Unser Hafen's Baronial Arts and Sciences Competition. This award recognizes archers who have achieved Bowman ranking, own all of their own equipment and have become Marshals of the Field. My vision is to see all of Unser Hafen's archer with this award. Also we are going to begin what will hopefully become a tradition within our Barony. As an archer gains a new rank, myself on behalf of the Barony will award the archer with the appropriate tassel during Court. The tassel was used in period to wipe dry the archers arrows and has become a symbol of ranking and honor within the Outlands.

Last but certainly not least. I would like to offer Hawk's Hollow and the Barony of Caerthe a heart felt Thank You for their generous gifts of 3 ethafoam backstops and 3 brand new tripods. Their gifts have greatly enriched archery in Unser Hafen. Thanks to all!

In Service,

Lady Reyhaneh bint 'Isa al-Zurhi

Unser Hafen Captain of Archers

From the Guild of Blacksmithing

Blacksmithing will be held at Tamlene's, 9am on May 20, 2000. All are welcome. Please wear old, cotton or wool clothing and bring your own eye protection.

From the Waterbearers Guild

Greetings,

Due to my impending involvement in TRH's upcoming reign I am being forced to vacate my positions as the head of the local waterbearer's guild and as the northern deputy. I am in dire need of replacements for both these positions! If you or any other service-minded gentles that you know would be interested in experiencing the fire of the fighting field without getting hit, then please contact me; information in the front of the Tosspot.

The event will be held at the Colorado Lions Camp in the mountains west of Colorado Springs. The site is wet, and as always period containers should be used. We will be checking ID's at the gate and using different site tokens to help people who bring alcohol to follow the legal age limits. Smoking is allowed in the designated areas only. Pets are permitted as long as they are kept on leashes. The basic site fee will be $5, with children 6-11 half price, and under 6 free.
The schedule for the event (subject to change) is:

Saturday:
9:00 AM - site opens

10:00 AM - coronation court
12:30 PM - lists open
1:00 PM - The Protector of the Queen's Heart Tournament
3:00 PM - Queen's Champion Tournament
6:00 PM - Evening court
7:00 PM - Feast begins
8:30 PM - Feast ends, revels begin
11:30 PM - Hall cleanup (we don't have to chase everyone out, but we do have to clean it before the morning)

Sunday:

9:00 AM - Peer's circles and Order of the White Scarf meetings (order To Be Determined)
10:00 AM - Lists open
11:00 AM - Heavy weapons fundraising tournament
1:30 PM - Rapier fundraising tournament
6:00 PM - site closes

The heavy weapons fundraising tournament on Sunday will be a "musical chairs" tournament. A donation of $5 is suggested for entrants. Prizes for the tournament will be fine articles of clothing donated by the tailors and seamstresses of our fine kingdom (if you wish to donate to the tournament, please contact the autocrat - simple T-tunics or loose pants are great, or promissory notes for the same). The winner of the tournament gets first pick of the prizes, the second place finisher get second pick, and so on. Proceeds go the Kingdom general fund.

The rapier fundraising tournament will require all entrants to bring a garland, wreath, or similar token of spring. We will auction off the these tokens, along with the right to be championed by the entrants, to the lords and ladies watching the tournament. Prizes will be awarded to the winning combatant and the person for whom they fought this day. Another prize will be awarded for the best praise of the person for whom you fight, either in song, poetry, or prose. Again, proceeds go the Kingdom general fund.

This site offers many amenities, including camping space (with hot showers), bunk rooms, and some small private rooms. If you wish to camp, there will be an additional fee of $3 per person (children under 6 free). There is no limit on the number of campers we can have. Please be aware that the early May nights in the mountains can be quite cold, with temperatures around freezing. If you wish to camp, please bring warm bedding and clothing.

The site offers two heated dormitories, each with 24 bunks divided into two levels with bathrooms. One dorm building will be reserved for families only, and will be considered a "quiet" area after 10:00 PM Saturday. The other dorm will be divided into a single men's floor and a single women's floor (due to site restrictions) and will not have quiet hours. The fee for dorm space is $7.50 per person (again, children under 6 free).

We are taking waiting list reservations for a limited number of small private rooms.. Each room contains two twin beds and a private bath, but is otherwise very small (these are rooms used by camp counselors during the summer, and realistically don't even have enough empty floor space for another adult). The fee for a private room is $22 per person for the event (maximum of $44 per room). If you would like to stay in one of these rooms, please get your name on the waiting list with the reservations coordinator. Although none are known to be available right now, you will be informed by April 20th if space opens up.

Finally, there are several nice hotels and "resort cabins" within 5 miles of the site. Please contact the reservations coordinator for more information on what's in the area.

If you wish to spend the night at the event, we request that you make reservations as soon as possible (even if you are only camping). Space in the dorms and private rooms is on a first come, first serve basis. Reservations for the private rooms and dorms must be paid by May 5th, or your space will be given to people on the waiting list. Currently the site is not available for camping or staying there Friday night, but this might change if we get enough people who wish to commit to coming up (and paying an additional night fee) on Friday. If you would like to be at the site Friday night, please let the reservation coordinator know. If you have any questions regarding the site or accommodations please contact the autocrat.

We offer you two options for a most wonderful repast in the evening. You may choose to partake of all the delicacies our fine cooks can prepare, or you may choose to eat of a simpler but equally fine meal. Fees for the complete feast are $9 per adult through April 25th, or $11 per adult thereafter. Fees for the feast of simpler fare are $5 before April 25th, or $6 thereafter. Children 6-11 are once again half price, and below 6 eat for free. The tentative menu is as follows, subject to change:

Simple fare

First Course

bread, fruit, cheese, lamb stew

Second Course

roast chicken with must sauce, pasta with butter and cheese, salad

Third course

a beef dish, rice or millet in almond milk, brussel sprouts in vinaigrette

Dessert Sideboard

Full feast adds to the Simple fare

olives, silvered almonds, marinated mushrooms, mushroom pate, sausage stuffing for the chicken, Norse tarts, asparagus

Please send all reservations to the address listed below. If you are arriving Friday night we encourage you to contact the reservations coordinator for information about crash space or hotels in the area.

Come join us for a wonderful time as we welcome the 29th Crown of the glorious Outlands!

Directions: From I-25 in Colorado Springs take US 24 West (Exit 141) towards Pikes Peak and Manitou Springs. Go up 24 to Woodland Park (about 23 miles from I-25). Once you enter Woodland Park go through 4 stop lights. Turn right at the fifth stop light, US 67 North. Proceed for four miles and you will see a large yellow sign on the left pointing towards to the camp. Turn left at the sign, and the camp is about a mile back on the dirt road.

University of Caerthe

In May we will hear about one of the industries important in most societies, ancient and modern. Lady Richenda will tell us about "Wool: from Sheep to Loom". She has had actual experience working with sheep: lambing, shearing, dealing with the wool market, and will describe how it has evolved from Period times to today. There will be the opportunity for some hands-on experience spinning on a drop spindle with different wools, and cleaning the fleece in the washing machine or bathtub. As a reminder of just how important wool has been through history -- by tradition the Chief Justice of England presides sitting on a woolsack.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M., May 31, the fifth Wednesday of the month, at Salamander Manor, the home of Mistress Bernice of Brittany - 3495 Newland Street, Wheat Ridge. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Lady Richenda, 303-455-6728, Mistress Bernice, 303- 33- 9558, or Master Robin Vinehall, 303-444-5004.

Site Opens 5:00p 6/2 • Site Closes 4:00p 6/4

The momentous day our Grand Fifteenth Tournament is at hand! We must choose our Shire's Defenders to help us vanquish our foes and defend our honor against the ravening hordes. There will be Defenders and tournament champions chosen from Heavy Fighters, Fencers and Archers. Although only those from our Shire may take the title of Defender and wear our baldrics we honor the over-all tourney winners of each category with a prize regardless of their place of origin to honor the time when we could only find champions beyond our borders. In keeping with our Shire's tradition the tourney prizes are fine and worthy of any hero. Prizes include a Sir Haroun made axe and a Lord Edward Cochran made dagger amongst numerous other glorious items.

In addition to Saturday's Heavy Fighting, Fencing and Archery Tourney's there will be a Light Saber Duel to be held by torchlight Saturday night for the adventurous. Sunday will offer Wood Battles and Posable Highland Battles for those who are strong of spirit! Fighters be sure to bring two handed weapons.

For those who wish it, this event also boasts Lady Audrey's Wenches Brawl Tavern! The women of the town are determined to drive the tavern wenches off and a mad resurrection food fight will ensue (green card not required)! Bring boffer foods that are soft centered and not bigger than most heads in order to participate. See Shire website for details.

Unser Hafen Baronial Defender!

June 4, 2000
Site Fee: FREE!!!

Fencers, fighters, archers, everyone, Unser Hafen Baronial Defender is fast approaching! This year's Defender will be an at home event where we can all get together and have fun as a barony, while choosing those talented warriors who will protect our barony for the upcoming year. The event will be split up during the day between two sites, one for archery and one for fencing and fighting. Their excellencies have requested that one and all attend all tournaments if at all possible.

The archery will start at 9:00am and will be held at Master Tamlene's and Mistress Drahomira's house, which is located at 6333 E. Hwy 402, Loveland, CO 80537. Exit 255, (Highway 402), one mile south of the Outlet Malls. Go east on 402 approx. ½ mile to the third house on the left. Parking will be limited. Car pooling is appreciated, there is a "park and ride" lot at the exit.

There will be a donation lunch at the archery range then we will all head to the our normal City Park fighter site where we will have our heavy weapons and our fencing tournaments. The City Park site will open at 11:00 for set up. Their Excellencies call upon all owners of period pavilions to bring them to set up around the eric. Please, also bring banners and other heraldic displays so that we may transform the park into a medieval spectacle. Tourneys are expected to start at around 1:00 pm. We will also have a donation dinner and court at the whim of their excellencies.

If you have any questions or comments please contact the autocrat, Lady Sabina de Falaise by e-mail, brey16@hotmail.com, or by phone, (970) 472-8412.

Warden Tournament Specifics

This years' Warden Tournament will consist of three shoots; a Royal Round, a Wand Shoot and a Dice Shoot. There will be prizes for the top archer in each shoot. The tournament will be held on Sunday, June 4th from 9am to 12:30 pm at Drahomira and Tamlene's home. Everyone who has a current membership is welcome to shoot, but you must be a member of the Barony of Unser Hafen to compete for the honor of Warden. All archers who participate are encouraged to join the rest of the Barony at City Park for the Protector and Defender Tournaments in the afternoon. (ask Sabina about the donation lunch. I forgot if it will be held at the archery range or at City Park. Maybe you could put in a schpeel about that where ever you see fit) The new Warden as well as the winners of the shoots will be announced in Their Excellencies Court after all of the Tournaments are completed.

May your arrows fly true!
Lady Reyhaneh bint 'Isa al-Zurhi
Warden of Unser Hafen

Protector Tournament Specifics

UNTO ALL GOOD GENTLES OF UNSER HAFEN, does Titus Claudius Severus, your humble ROMAN Protector of Unser Hafen sends salutations and Felicitations!

In the name of Their Excellencies Tuman and Rashiqah, I Titus Claudius Severus will be running the Protector Tournament for this Barony's new Protector. Dust off your BUCKLERS and prepare to use them! The tourney will be a variety of scenarios with one common feature, Bucklers must be used. All rounds will be based upon mythic struggles from Roman History and every fencer that is available will be welcome to attend.

1. Stand at the bridge:

The protector candidate will try to hold a bridge against all the other members of the list with cumulative wounds. The candidate will have a Buckler, the others will be armed with a single weapon. Hold as long as you can, step off the bridge and you die.

2. The triplets:

The candidate will be paired with two other fighters, the idea is that the teams of triplets will fight each other. The goal is to defeat the other two fighters leaving the candidates alone. The candidate must protect his teammates while defeating the other team.

3. The arena:

All candidates for Protector will fight a TRUE meanest mother. No alliances. The other fencers will surround the battle field and join any candidate who is ganged up upon.

4. The ides of March:

Each candidate will escort a "Caesar" from one end of the list field to the other. If a Caesar makes it to a potential exit, his candidate wins as long as there are no other Caesars that have a candidate left. The Caesar is armed with a dagger and can fight if necessary.

Best of luck to all the candidates! Vivat Unser Hafen!

Defender Tournament Specifics

The Honorable Aonghus, Lord Lochlainn sends greetings unto all the warriors of Unser Hafen!

I pray thee, consider these names;

Sir Akira...Sir Deotrich...Eques Titus...His Excellency Tuman...

Indeed, an August company of warriors! I sound their names to remind you of a glorious brotherhood they all share. Each of these men has, in his time, been called "Defender." It has been my solemn privilege to hold that office this past year, and I know of no greater honor a fighter can receive. Though I am loathe to leave His Excellency's side, I have grown tired, and my beard is now streaked with grey from upholding this sacred trust. With heavy heart do I now begin the search for one that can take from me this most noble of bonds.

A mighty tournament will be held in the midst of June, upon the fields at City Park in Fort Collins. Each warrior who deems himself worthy of this lofty goal, must compete in three equally weighted categories;

1)Presentation to Their Excellencies

This may be a processional, a toast to Their health, a gift, or in fact, any courtly presentation that demonstrates your nobility, generosity, and fitness to bear the Sword of State. You may employ heralds, drummers, pipers, dancing girls, etc. This shall be judged by Their Excellencies and a panel of gentles selected by Them.

2)Documentation of your fighting harness and style

To compete, you must submit written documentation of your armor (or the rig you are attempting to look like), and the weapons system you have chosen for the day. If you wish to use more than one style, include all the weapons you intend to use in your documentation. This submission shall also be judged by Their Excellencies and a panel of Their choosing. Good documentation will include a brief explanation of your persona's time period and place of origin, as well as clearly cited source material.

3)Tournament

A tournament, of double elimination or round robin format depending on the number of participants. In addition to the scheduled bouts, Their Excellencies may at any time request to see any fight They deem necessary in order to aid the fates in deciding my successor.

Now, dear cousins, before you come to my house with a noose, please read the next paragraph...

If anyone wants help with their documentation, feel free to contact me. I will be happy to give such aid and counsel as I can.

I beseech all heavy weapons fighters to take up this gauntlet. Not only will you have a great time at the tourney, but you may learn something in the process.

In service to Unser Hafen,

Lochlann

EXAMPLE OF DOCUMENTATION

Chieftain Hancarata Aethnen filia Cunedda

My armor, weapons, and clothing are meant to simulate, within SCA safety constraints, my own good sense, and my financial constraints, the equipment of a Romano-British cavalry trooper of the late 5th or early 6th century. I am a native Briton and have never even seen a real Roman--they left the island a century ago, but they left behind a nobility and civil structure strongly influenced by their culture. The leader I follow, Artorius Aurelianus, is using Roman cavalry tactics against our Saxon, Pictish, and Irish enemies, and much of our equipment is influenced by that in use by the crumbling Empire, as well as our own tribal customs.

My oval center-grip shield is typical of Roman cavalry equipment, much of which was originally adapted from Gaulish designs. The Britons who faced Claudius in the 1st century were using center-grip ovals, among other designs. This size and shape were nearly universal among cavalry (and sometimes infantry) in the 5th century in both the eastern and western empires. I have changed the orientation of the center grip because a vertical grip is easier to hold and more protective when fighting on foot; a horizontal grip is more effective for use from horseback. Heraldry did not exist as such in the 5th-6th centuries, but it was common in the late Roman army for units to have insignia which they painted on their shields for identification. I carry the badge of my household, the Legio Borealis.

In length and weight, my sword simulates the spatha, which was in use from the 2nd century on, originally inspired by British and Gaulish longswords. Later spathae were influenced by Gothic designs. A cavalry trooper needs a longer sword to fight enemies on the ground. I use a plastic basket-hilt to protect my hand because it is lighter and more protective than a gauntlet. Historical spathae had no basket-hilt, nor even a cross- hilt.

My helmet was made my Sir Kevin and myself, and it completely an SCA artifact, but its design is meant to echo the spangenhelm with cheekpieces and a short nasal that was in use by the late Roman cavalry and most of their opponents. My body armor is a bizarre combination of modern materials that works for me, so I cover it with a tunic decorated in the "dalmatica" style typically in use by the Roman army of the time. The shoulders are hockey pads; the rib protection is actually part of a lorica segmentata, which is very flexible. Historically my body armor might have been chain mail or flexible scale, maybe leather, or nothing at all. My horse would have been unarmored. I am a Celtic Briton of the Ordovice tribe in Gwynedd, so I wear a tartan cloak and checked trousers typical of my people. My short boots are typical of both military and civilian designs of the time, warm and supportive. The splint armor on my arms and legs is a Saxon design, and would have been more likely found on a foot soldier, but cavalry troopers are particularly vulnerable to wounds on their forearms and thighs, and that Saxon was generous enough to donate it to me... Mine is made of aluminum to minimize weight. Historically it would have been thin strips of iron. Knee and elbow cops, a gorget, and a face grill are required by the SCA (and good sense) but were not used in my period.

Cavalier Holiday

Barony of Caerthe, June 4, A.S. XXXV (2000)
Site opens 9:30a • Site Closes 4:00 p

Come and gambol in the King's Park. Due to a problem with scheduling, Cavalier Holiday will be on Sunday, June 4th this year and not Saturday as originally listed. The traditional cavalier games of lawn bowling (bocci) and croquet are set for those with a competitive spirit. Chilled teas, lemonade, and water will be provided to quench the thirst brought on by such exertions. Also, a table will be laid with fruit, eggs, and simple cakes. Any more extensive picnic faire is up to you.

The event is also a gathering of non-perishable food for the Food Bank of the Rockies. By this time of year the shelves are getting empty of bounty that filled them during the winter holidays. If you have any questions about appropriate food donations please give me a call, or they always accept cash.

The site will open for people setting up shade pavilions at 9:30, and the merriment should begin at 11:00. Any court will be at any attending Crown's or Coronet's discretion. Prizes will be given for the games competition, decadent and elegant picnics, best cavalier and non-cavalier, and of course the autocrats whim, and Baronial whim.
